

Sinclair has made a step to stop meddling in politics, but it is not enough. Showing a negative program about a decorated war hero, in a time of war, is extremely unpatriotic. It sends the wrong message to our troops, and to the rest of the world. It makes America look weak. Why should other countries around the world want a government that is similar to ours, if this is how we treat our leaders???